

Computer and Internet Rules

McCall Middle School

STUDENT PRIVILEGES

Students may use the Internet to

-  locate material to meet educational needs.
-  participate in distance learning activities.
-  ask questions of and consult with experts.
-  communicate with other students and individuals for educational purposes.

All students at the middle school will be allowed to work independently with the Internet on educational assignments.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES

Students will

-  treat the people you “meet” on the Internet with respect.
-  treat computers responsibly.
-  act as a representative of the school by showing responsibility.
-  tell a teacher or another adult if any inappropriate sites are accessed by accident.
-  follow all of the instructions given and stay only in the areas the teacher suggests.
-  actively use the information found on the Internet in learning (projects, reports, and discussions).
-  respect documents of classmates—no reading, deleting, copying or modifying of classmates’ files.
-  never give out personal information online (addresses, phone numbers, pictures, etc.) or arrange personal meetings with anyone met online.

Students are advised that e-mail and /or Internet correspondence is not privileged or confidential and that there are consequences for choosing not to follow the Internet rules.

Student’s Signature: _____ Date: _____

These rules are set forth from the Acceptable Use Policy adopted by the school committee on March 1999 for the Winchester Public Schools. A detailed Acceptable Use Policy will be placed in computer labs and the principal’s office at each school for parent or community viewing.